METHOD FOR SELECTING
COOPERATING MATHEMATICS TEACHERS

The mathematics department maintains an approved list of cooperating mathematics teachers. The procedure for creating these lists begins with soliciting names of recommended teachers [with supporting reasons] from several sources: university colleagues, high school students and their parents, and area administrators. Additional information is obtained for each recommended cooperating teacher. This additional information is discussed by a committee, and approved teachers are added to the list.

A sample form for submitting recommendations is attached.