6.4.e1 Publications Policy

The catalogs, Website, social media, and official bulletins of the university are reviewed regularly by the Vice President of Academic Affairs, the Dean’s Council, and the unit’s chairs and program coordinators.

Program materials are reviewed yearly under established guidelines under the direction of the Vice President of Academic Affairs. Review of all materials is through the proper chain of command to confirm that information is accurate and current. The Academic Council meets regularly to formulate revisions to the policies of the university and its individual schools.
