A COMMINATION, or denouncing of God's anger and judgements against sinners, with certain Prayers to be used on the first day of Lent, and at other times, as the Ordinary shall appoint.

After Morning Prayer, the Litany ended according to the accustomed manner, the Priest shall in the Reading-Pew or Pulpit say,

B Rethren, in the primitive Church there was a godly discipline, that at the beginning of Lent, such persons as stood convicted of notorious sin, were put to open penance, and punished in this world, that their souls might be saved in the day of the Lord; and that others, admonished by their example, might be the more afraid to offend.

Instead whereof (until the said discipline may be restored again, which is much to be wished) it is thought good, that at this time (in the presence of you all) should be read the general sentences of God's cursing against impenitent sinners, gathered out of the seven and twentieth chapter of Deuteronomy, and other places of Scripture; and that ye should answer to every sentence, Amen: To the intent that being admonished of the great indignation of God against sinners, ye may the rather be moved to earnest and true repentance, and may walk more warily in these dangerous days; fleeing from such vices, for which ye affirm with your own mouths the curse of God to be due.

Curset is the man that maketh any carved or molten image, to worship it.

And the People shall answer, and say, Amen.

Minister. Curset is he that curseth his father or mother.

Answer. Amen.

Minister. Curset is he that removeth his neighbour's landmark.

Answer. Amen.

Minister. Curset is he that percheth the judgement of the stranger, the fatherless, and widow.

Answer. Amen.

Minister. Curset is he that smiteth his neighbour secretly.

Answer. Amen.

Minister. Curset is he that lieth with neighbour's wife.

Answer. Amen.

Minister. Curset is he that taketh reward to slay the innocent.

Answer. Amen.

Minister. Curset is he that putteth his trust in man, and taketh man for his defence, and in his heart goeth from the Lord.

Answer. Amen.

Minister. Curset are the unmerciful, fornicators, and adulterers, covetous persons, idolaters, slanderers, drunkards, and extortioners.

Answer. Amen.

NOW feeing that all they are accurst (as the prophet David beareth witnesses) who do err and go astray from the commandments of God, let us (remembering the dreadfull judgement hanging over our heads, and always ready to fall upon us) return unto our Lord God with all contrition and meekness of heart; bewailing and lamenting our sinful life, acknowledging and confessing our offences, and seeking to bring forth worthy fruits of penance. For now is the ax put unto the root of the trees, so that every tree that bringeth forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. He shall pour down rain upon the sinners, snares, fire and brimstone, storm and tempest; this shall be their portion to drink. For so, the Lord is come out of his place, to visit the wickedness of such as dwell upon the earth. But who may abide the day of his coming? Who shall be able to endure when he appeareth? His fan is in his hand, and he will purge his floor, and gather his wheate into the barn; but he will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire. The day of the Lord cometh as a thief in the night: and when men shall say, Peace, and all things are safe, then shall sudden destruction come upon them, as sorrow cometh upon a woman travailing with child, and they shall not escape. Then shall appear the wrath of God in the day of vengeance, which obliquates sinners, through the stubbornness of their heart, have heaped unto themselves; which despised the goodness, patience, and long suffering of God, when he calleth them continually to repentance. Then shall they call upon me (faith the Lord) but I will not hear; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me; and that because they hated knowledge, and received not the fear of the Lord, but abhorred my counsel, and despised my correction. Then shall it be too late to knock, when the door shall be shut; and too late to cry for mercy, when it is the time of justice: O terrible voice of most just judgement, which shall be pronounced upon them, when it shall be said unto them, Go ye cursed into the fire everlasting, which is prepared for the devil and his angels. Therefore, brethren, take heed to time, while the day of salvation lighteth; for the night cometh when none can work: But let us, while we have the light, believe in the light, and walk as children...
