The 7th day.

Psalms.

The 7th day.

Psalm 37. Noli temulari.

Evening Prayer.

RET not thyself because of the ungodly: neither be thou envious against the evil-doers.

For they shall soon be cut down like the grass: and be withered even as the green herb.

Put thou thy trust in the Lord, and be doing good: dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

Delight thou in the Lord: and he shall give thee thy heart's desire.

Commit thy way unto the Lord, and he shall bring it to pass.

He shall make thy righteousness as clear as the light: and thy just dealing as the noon-day.

Hold thee still in the Lord, and abide patiently upon him: but grieve not thyself at him whose way doth prosper against the man that doeth after evil counsels.

Leave off from wrath, and let go dishonest pleasure: fret not thyself, else shalt thou be moved to do evil.

Wicked doers shall be rooted out: and they that patiently abide the Lord, those shall inherit the land.

Yet a little while, and the ungodly shall be clean gone: thou shalt look after his place, and he shall be away.

But the meek-spirited shall possess the earth: and shall be refreshed in the multitude of peace.

The 7th day.

Psalm 39. Dixit injustus.

My heart sheweth me the wickedness of the ungodly: that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

For he flattereth himself in his own heart: until his abominable sin be found out.

The words of his mouth are unrighteous and full of deceit: he hath left off to behave himself wisely, and to do good.

He imagineth mischief upon his bed: and hath let himself in no good way: neither doth he abhor any thing that is evil.

Thy mercy, O Lord, reacheth unto the heavens: and thy faithfulness unto the clouds.

Thy righteousness standeth like the hewn mountains: thy judgements are like the great deep.

Thou, Lord, shalt have both man and beast: How excellent is thy mercy, O God: and the children of men shall put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

They shall be satisfied with the plenteousness of thy house: and thou shalt give them drink of thy pleasures as out of the river.

For with thee is the well of life: and in thy light shall we see light.

O continue forth thy loving-kindness unto them that know thee: and thy righteousness unto them that are true of heart.

O let not the foot of pride come against me: and let not the hand of the ungodly cast me down.

There are they fallen, all that work wickedness: they are cast down, and shall not be able to stand.
