The 9. day.

PSALMS.

12 Mark well her bulwarks, set up her houses: that ye may tell them that come after.
13 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he shall be our guide unto death.

PSAL. 49. Audite hæc, omnes.

Hear ye this, all ye people: ponder it with your ears, all ye that dwell in the world;
2 High and low, rich and poor: one with another.
3 My mouth shall speak of wisdom: and my heart shall muse of understanding.
4 I will incline mine ear to the parable: and shew my dark speech upon the harp.
5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of wickedness: and whenthewickedness of my heels compasseth me round and about?
6 Be thou that put their trust in their goods: and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches.
7 But no man may deliver his brother: nor make agreement unto God for him;
8 For it cost more to redeem their souls: so that he must let that alone for ever;
9 Yea, though he live long: and see not the grave.
10 For he saeth that wise men also die and perish together: as well as the ignorant and foolish, and leave their riches for other.
11 And yet they think that their houses shall continue forever: and that their dwelling-places shall endure from one generation to another: and call the lands after their own names.
12 Nevertheless, man will not abide in honour: seeing he may be compared unto the beasts that perish: this is the way of them.
13 This is their foolishness: and their prosperity praise their saying.
14 They lie in the hell like sheep, death gnaweth upon them, and the righteous shall have dominion over them in the morning: their beauty shall confuseth in the sepulchre out of their dwelling.
15 But God hath delivered my soul from the place of hell: for he shall receive me.
16 Be not thou afraid though one be made rich: or if the glory of his house be increased;
17 For he shall carry nothing away with him, when he dieth: neither shall his pomp follow him.
18 For while he lived, he counted himself an happy man: and so long as thou dost well unto thyself, men will speak good of thee.
19 He shall follow the generation of his fathers: and shall never see light.
20 Man being in honour hath no understanding: but is compared unto the beasts that perish.

MORNING PRAYER.

PSAL. 50. Deus deorum.

The Lord, even the most mighty God hath spoken: and called the world from the rising up of the sun unto the going down thereof.

The 10. day.

PSALMS.

2 Out of Sion hath God appeared: in perfect beauty.
3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: there shall go before him a consuming fire, and a mighty tempest shall be stirred up round about him.
4 He shall call the heaven from above: and the earth, that he may judge his people.
5 Gather my saints together unto me: those that have made a covenant with me with sacrifice.
6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself.
7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak: I myself will testify against thee, O Israel:
8 for I am God, even thy God. I will not reprove thee because of thy sacrifices, or for thy burnt-offerings: because they were not always before me.
9 I will take no bullock out of thine house: nor he-goat out of thy folds.
10 For all the beasts of the forest are mine: and so are the cattle upon a thousand hills.
11 I know all the fowls upon the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are in my sight.

12 If I be hungry, I will not tell thee: for the whole world is mine, and all that is therein.
13 Thinkest thou that I will eat bulls flesh: and drink the blood of goats?
14 Offer unto God thanksgiving: and pay thy vows unto the most High;

The 10. day.

15 And call upon me in the time of trouble: for I will hear thee, and thou shalt praise me.
16 But unto the ungodly said God: Why dost thou preach my laws, and takest my covenant in thy mouth?
17 Whereas thou hatest to be reformed: and hast cast my words behind thee.
18 When thou fawest a thief, thou comest into him: and hast been partaker with the adulterers.
19 Thou hast let thy mouth speak wickedness: and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceit.
20 Thou satest and spakest against thy brother: yea, and hast slandered thine own mother's son.
21 These things haft thou done, and I held my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly, that I am even such a one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set before thee the things that thou haft done.
22 O consider this, ye that forget God: lest I pluck you away, and there be none to deliver you.
23 Whoso offereth me thanks and praise, he honoureth me; and to him that ordereth his conversion right, will I shew the salvation of God.

PSAL. 51. Misericordia, Deus. HAVE mercy upon me, O God, after thy great goodness: according to the multitude of thy mercies do away mine offences.
2 Wash me throughly from my
