Psalm CX, CXI.

Let not his father's wickedness
And never let his mother's sin
But in the presence of the Lord,
That from the earth their memory
Since mercy he forgot to shew,
The troubled man, and sought to stay
As he did cursing, love it shall
And as he did blessing love,
As he with cursing clad himself,
Enter his bowels, and like oil
Ev'n as a garment let it be
And as a girdle wherewith he Let this be the reward from God
Yea, and of those that evil speak,
But thou, O Lord that art my God,
Deliver me for thy Name's sake
Because in depth of great distress
Also within my pained breast

The Third Part.

Ev'n so do I depart away,
and as the grasshopper, so I
With falling love from needful food
And all the fatten of my flesh
And I also a vile reproach
And they that upon me look
Help me, therefore, O God, I pray,
According to thy mercies great
And they shall know thereby, that this
And that 'tis thou that hast it done
Although they curse with spite, yet thou
When they rise up, and come to shame,
Let them with shame be clothed all
And with confusion as a cloak
But greatly I will with my mouth
And I among the multitude
For he with help at his right hand
To have I from the man that would

Psalm CXII, CXIII, CXIV.

His works are glorious,
and righteousness to us,
It ever doth endure:

His wondrous works he would we still remember should;
His mercy is full sure.

Such as to him bear love,
a portion fair above
He hath up for them laid:
For this they shall well find;
he will them have in mind,
And keep them as he said.

For he did not disdain
his works to shew them plain,
By lightnings and by thunders:
When he the heathen's land
did give into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.

Of all his works enu' th both judgement, right and truth,
Where to his statutes tend:
They are decreed sure
for ever to endure;
On which we may depend.

Redemption great he gave his people for to fave,
It also hath appear'd,
His promise doth not fail,
but evermore prevail:
His holy Name be fear'd.

Who of with heart full pain,
true wisdom would attain,
The Lord fear and obey,
Such as his laws do keep;
shall knowledge have full deep;
His praise shall last away.

Psalm CXI. W. K.

The man is blest that God doth fear,
and that his law doth love indeed:
His heed on earth God will.uprear,
and blest such as from him proceed;
His righteousness endure shall still in trouble joy, in darkness light:
and mercy always in his sight:
He doth with judgment things expend,
for in remembrance had he is;
Who in the Lord sure hope doth fee:
for he shall fee his foes down cast,
his righteousness doth still remain;
which wicked men behold with pain;
Yea, gnash their teeth thereat shall they,
and so confumble and melt away.

Psalm CXII. W. K.

Ye children which do serve the Lord, praise ye his Name with one accord;
Ye, blessed be alway his Name,
Who from the rising of the sun, till it return where it begun.
Is to be praised with great fame.
The Lord all people doth furmount, as for his glory we may count,
Above the heavens high to be.
With God the Lord who can compare, whose dwellings in the heavens are?
Of such great pow'r and force is he.

He doth abase himself we know,
things to behold on earth below,
And also in the heav'n above:
The needy out of dust to draw,
also the poor which help none fail,
His mercy only did him move;
And so did set him up on high,
with princes of great dignity,
That rule his people with great fame.
The barren he doth make to bear,
and with great joy her fruit to rear;
Therefore praise ye his holy Name.

Psalm CXIII. W. W.

When Israel by God's command
And Jacob his house the strangers left,
In Judah God his glory shew'd,
So did the Israelites declare

With heart I do accord
to praise and laud the Lord,
In presence of the just:
For great his works are found;
To search them such are bound,
As do him love and trust.
