PSALM CXV, CXVI.

3 The sea faw it, and suddenly The roaring streams of Jordan's flood.
4 As rams afraid, the mountains skipp'd,
And as the sily trembling lambs, 5 What ailed thee, O sea, that thou Ye rolling waves of Jordan's flood?
6 Ye mountains, ev'n as rams afraid, Why did your tops as trembling lambs?
7 O earth, confess thy Sov'reign Lord, Before the face of Jacob's God 8 I mean the God, who from hard rocks
And from the flinty flint doth fend

PSALM 115. N.

NOT unto us, Lord, not to us, Both for thy mercy and thy truth
Why shall the heathen corners say, Our God he is in hea'n, and what Their idols sliver are and gold,
They have a mouth, but do not speak
And they have ears join'd to their heads, Noes also they formed have,
And hands they have, but handle not;
A throat they have, yet through the fame
They and their makers are alike, O Israel, trust in the Lord,
O Aaron's house, trust in the Lord, Ye that do fear him, trust in him
The Lord of us hath mindful been,
On Israel and Aaron's house.
They that be fearers of the Lord, Yea, he will blest them ev'ry one,
To you always the living Lord,
And alio to the children that Ye are the blest of the Lord, Who both the heav'n and earth did make The heav'n above the highest heav'n
The earth unto the sons of men They that be dead do not with praise Nor any that unto the place
But we will praise the Lord our God
He only worthy is of praise;

PSALM 116. N.

I Love the Lord, because the voice I'll ever call on him, because Ev'n when the snares of cruel death When pains of hell me caught, and when Upon the Name of God the Lord, Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
The Lord is very merciful,
And in our God compassion doth
The Lord in safety doth preserve
I was in woeful misery,
And now my soul, since thou art safe,
For largely unto thee the Lord Because thou hast delivered My moist'ned eyes from mournful tears,
Before the Lord I in the hand
I did believe, therefore I spake,
The Second Part.
That all men liars be;
What shall I pay the Lord for all of my pray'r heard hath he;
he bow'd his ear to me, about befit me round, I wo and sorrow found;
then did I call, and say,
I do thee humbly pray, and just he is also,
moot plentifully flow, all those that simple be;
and he deliver'd me,
return unto thy rest,
his bounty hath exprest, my soul from deadly thrall, my fling feet from fall;
of life will walk therefore;
but I was troubled fore.

The Second Part.

I said in my distress and fear,
What shall I pay the Lord for all as all amaz'd did say;
gave back immediately, their strength did them for sake;
their tops did beat and shake;
so suddenly did fly?
why turn'd ye to so swiftly?
why did your strength so shake?
quiver with fear and quake?
and dreed his mighty hand;
feare ye both sea and land;
cauft floods to appear, fountains of water clear;
but to thy Name give praise;
that are in these alwayes.
Where is their God become? he will'd, that he ha done.
work of men's hands they be,
and eyes, but do not see;
but do not hear at all;
but not to finell withal;
and feet, but cannot walk.
they do not speake or talk.
those whose trust they be;
thy help and shield is he,
that still defendeth thee;
your fire defence is he,
and will us blest also,
his blessings will beftow.
his fire will blest them all, ev'n both the great and small.
will multiply his grace, shall follow of your race.
ev'n of the Lordmost high,
and fix immovable.
belong unto the Lord;
gave of free accord.
set forth the Lord's renown, of silence do go down:
henceforth for evermore;
Praise ye the Lord therefore.

PSALM CXVII, CXVIII.

10 The wholesome cup of saving health And on the Name of God will call, 11 I to the Lord will pay my vows
Now at this very present time 12 Right dear and precious in his sight
The death of all his holy ones, 13 Thy servant, Lord, thy servant, lo, Son of thy handmaid, thou hast broke 14 Therefore I'll offer up to thee
And I will call upon the Name
15 I to the Lord will pay my vows
Now at this very present time 16 Yea, in the courts of God's own house, O thou Jerusalem; Therefore

PSALM 117. N.

O All ye nations of the world,
And all ye people is every where, 1 For great his kindness is every where Wherefore praise ye the Lord our God,

PSALM 118. N.

O Give ye thanks to God the Lord, Because his mercy doth endure 2 Let Israel confess that his Let Aaron's house likewise confess, 3 Let all that fear the Lord our God
The mercy of the Lord our God 4 In trouble and in heavinesses Who lovingly heard me at large,
The Lord himself is on my side, Nor fear what man can do to me
The Lord doth take my part with them Therefore I shall see my desire Better it is to trust in God,
Or to put confidence in kings
All nations have inclofed me,
But in the Name of God shall I They kept me in on every side
But in the Lord's most mighty Name
They came about me all like bees,
I quench'd their thorns that were on fire.

The Second Part.

They did with force and much at me
But through the Lord I found such help My joy, my mirth, and song,
A Saviour great and strong.
And become to me indeed
The Lord is my defence and strength,
He caufeth voice of joy and health
The right hand of the Lord doth bring
His hand hath the pre-eminence,
I shall not die, but ever live
The mighty power of the Lord,
The Lord himself hath chastened,
But not me given over yet
Set open unto me the gates
That I may enter into them
This is the gate of God the Lord,
That good and righteous men always

The Third Part.

I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, Who hath me heard, and art become That I indeed might fall as did them vanish all
The Lord is my defence and strength,
And become to me indeed
The Lord is my defence and strength,
He caufeth voice of joy and health
The right hand of the Lord doth bring
His hand hath the pre-eminence,
I shall not die, but ever live
The mighty power of the Lord,
The Lord himself hath chastened,
But not me given over yet
Set open unto me the gates
That I may enter into them
This is the gate of God the Lord,
That good and righteous men always

The Second Part.

and ever will praise thee, a Saviour unto me.
