PSALM XVIII.

12 At his bright presence did thick clouds
And in the tempest did they come.
13 The fiery darts and thunderbolts
With his frequent lightnings he 14 When thou, O Lord, with great rebuke
The springs and the foundations of 15 And from above the Lord sent down
And pluck'd me out of waters great
16 And me deliver'd from my foes
Yes, from such foes as were too strong
17 They did prevent me evermore
But yet the Lord is my defence,
18 He brought me forth in open place,
And kept me safe: because he had 19 According to my innocencenc,
And to the cleaness of my hands
20 For that I walked in his ways,
And not departed wickedly

The Third Part.

21 But evermore I have respect
His statutes and commandments I
22 But pure and clean and incorrupt
And did refrain from wickedness.
23 The Lord will therefore me reward
As to the cleaness of my hands.
24 For, Lord, with him that is holy
And with the good and virtuous men.
25 And for the loving and elect
And thou wilt use the wicked men
26 For thou dost save the simple folk
And dost bring down the countenance.
27 The Lord will light my candle to,
The Lord my God will make also
28 For by thy help I am not afraid of men
By thee I scale and over leap.
29 Unspotted are the ways of God,
He is a sure defence to such.
30 For who is God, except the Lord?
Or else who is omnipotent.

The Fourth Part.

31 The God that girdeth me with strength
That all the ways wherein I walk
32 That made my feet like the hart's
And for my safety brought me forth
33 He did in order put my hands
To break in funder bars of brazen.
34 Thou teachest me thy favoring health,
Thy love and gentleness also.
35 And under me thou makest plain
So that my feet shall never slip,
36 And fiercely I pursue and take
And from the field do not return.
37 So I suppress and wound my foes.
For underneath me they fall.
38 For thou hast girded me with strength
That wilt throw down my enemies.
39 Lord, thou hast given me the neck
That so I might destroy all those 40 They call'd for help, but none gave ear,
Yea, to the Lord they call'd for aid,
in haste away retire,
{193-205}

PSALM XIX, XX.

The Fifth Part.

41 And still, like dust before the wind,
And sweep them out like filthy dirt
42 Thou keep'rt me from seditious folk
And thou dost of the heathen folk.
43 A people strange to me unknown,
And at the first my obied
44 I shall be in knowme, own,
But wander wide out of the way.
45 But blest be the living Lord,
He is my rock and fashioning health,
46 For it is he that gave me power
And with his holy word suf'rd
47 And from my foe deliver'd me,
That cruel and ungody were
48 And for this cause, O Lord my God,
And fing out praises to thy Name.
49 Deliv'rance great thou giv'lt the king,
Mercy for thine Anointed, and

PSALM 19.

The heav'n's and firmament on high do wondrou'sly declare
God's glory and omnipotence.
2 The wondrous works of God appear
The nights likewise which their race run
3 There is no language, tongue or speach,
In all the earth and coast thereof.
4 In them the Lord made for the fun
Who like a bridegroom ready trimm'd
5 And as a valiant champion,
With joy doth haste to take in hand
6 And all the sky from end to end
Nothing can hide it from his heat.
7 How perfect is the law of God!
Converting souls, and making wise.
8 The Lord's commands are righteous and
His precepts are most pure, and do
9 The fear of God is excellent.
The judgements of the Lord also.
10 And more to be desired are
The honey and the honey-comb.
11 By them thy servant is forewarn'd
And in performance of the fame.
12 But, Lord! what earthly man doth know
Then cleanse me from my secret sins.
13 And keep me that presumptuous sins
And so shall I be innocent.
14 Accept my mouth and heart also,
For my Redeemer and my strength.

PSALM 20.

In trouble and adversity
The Majesty of Jacob's God
2 And send thee from his holy place
And to Sion Triiblith thee,
3 Remember well the sacrifice
And to receive most graciously
4 According to thy heart's desire
And all thy counsel and thy mind.
5 We will rejoice when thou's fav'rt,
Unto the Lord, who thy requests.
6 The Lord will his Anointed ave,
And send him help by his right-hand

that lieth in the street,
that still in strife are led:
appoint me to be head:
yet and yet they shall serve,
whereas my own will swerve,
they will not see my light,
and hide them out of sight.

his seed for evermore.

PSALM X.

1 Lord, who hath not spoken the truth
In my heart I have dwelt and
2 For my help I will lift up mine eyes
Unto the heavens.
3 For it is the Lord that cometh mild
And high is his throne.
4 The heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament sheweth his skill,
5 And his commandment is all powerful
And all his judgments are faithful.
6 Let all the angels of God praise him,
And all the host of his spirits.
7 Let them praise his name for ever:
And say, 'The Lord reigneth for ever.'
8 Give glory unto the King.
S Abdullah's translation.

PSALM XXI.

1 For the benefit of thy servant,
I will produce this poem:
2 The Lord is my rock and my might,
And he shall be my sure defence.
3 Thou hast given me rules of truth
That I might not sin.
4 Let me not be put to shame
When I am in压迫.
5 In my distress let theLord hear me;
For thy name's sake answer me.
6 For the benefit of thy servant,
I will produce this poem:
7 The Lord is my rock and my might,
And he shall be my sure defence.
8 Thou hast given me rules of truth
That I might not sin.
9 Let me not be put to shame
When I am in压迫.
10 In my distress let theLord hear me;
For thy name's sake answer me.
