

S. Matthew Chap. 19. Verse 13.

Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray and the disciples rebuked them. v. 14 But JESUS said, suffer little children & forbid them not to come unto me for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

the Child, that all things were done as they ought to be; then shall not be christen the Child again, but shall receive him as one of the flock of true Christian People, saying thus;

I Certify you, that in this case all is well done, and according unto due order, concerning the baptizing of this Child; who being born in original sin, and in the wrath of God, is now by the laver of regeneration in Baptism received into the number of the children of God, and heirs of everlasting life: for our Lord Jesus Christ doth not deny his grace and mercy unto such Infants, but most lovingly doth call them unto him, as the holy Gospel doth witness to our comfort on this wise:

S. Mark 10. 13.

THEY brought young children to Christ, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

OUR Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven: Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ After the Gospel is read, the Minister shall make this brief Exhortation upon the words of the Gospel.

A Almighty and everlasting God, heavenly Father, we
