

- 21 Ye faints, love ye the Lord alway,
And to the proud he doth repay
- 22 Be of good courage, all ye just,
For those in him that put their trust

P S A L M 32.

- TH E man is blest, whose wickedness
And he whose sin is likewise hid,
2 And blest is he to whom the Lord
Who in his heart hath hid no guile,
3 For whilst that I kept close my sin
My bones did wear and waste away
4 Both night and day thy hand on me
My moisture like the summer's heat 5 I did therefore confess my faults,
Then thou, O Lord, didst me forgive, 6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
So that the floods of waters great 7 When trouble and adversity
Thou art my refuge and my joy,
8 Come hither, and I will thee teach
I will thee guide, as I myself
9 Be not so rude and ignorant
Whose mouth without a rein or bit 10 The wicked man shall manifest
But unto him that trusts in God 11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
And ye of pure and perfect heart,

P S A L M 33.

- YE righteous, in the Lord rejoice;
That upright men with thankful voice
2 Praise ye the Lord with harp, and sing
With ten-string'd instruments sounding 3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
For why? his word is ever true,
4 Both judgement, equity and right
And with his gifts he doth delight
5 For by the word of God alone
Their hosts and powers ev'ry one 6 The waters great gather'd bath he And hid them in the depth to be 7 Let all the earth then fear the Lord,
And all the world with one accord 8 What he commanded wrought it was What he doth will is brought to pass 9 The counsels of the nations rude
He doth defeat the multitude 10 But his decrees continue still,
The motions of his mind and will

The Second Part.

- 11 Blessed are they to whom the Lord
Whom he doth chuse of mere accord
- 12 The Lord from heav'n did cast his sight Beholding from his seat of might
- 13 The Lord, I say, whose hand hath wrought Tis he alone doth know the thought
- 14 A King that trusteth in his host
The man that of his might doth boast
- 15 The troops of horsemen all shall fail,
The strength of horse shall not prevail

the faithful he doth guide, according to their pride.
on God your strength depend;
he ever will defend.

T. S.

The Lord forgiven hath,
and cover'd from his wrath.
imputeth not his sin,
nor fraud is found therein.
in silence and constraint,
with daily moan and plaint:
so grievous was and smart,
to dryness did convert-
and all my sins reveal;
and all my sins conceal,
and seek thee in due time,
shall have no power on him.
do compass me about,
and thou dost rid me out:
how thou shalt walk aright;
have learn'd by proof and sight:
as is the horse and mule,
from harm thou canst not rule.
sorrows and grief sustain:
his goodness shall remain,
ye just, lift up your voice;
with cheerfulness rejoice.

J. H.

it is a seemly sight
should praise the Lord of might.
to him with palstrey,
praise ye the Lord most high,
with courage give him praise,
his works and all his ways:
he ever lov'd and will,
the earth throughout to fill.
the heav'ns above were wrought, his breath to pass hath brought;
on heaps within the shore,
as in a house of store.
and keep his righteous law,
dread him and stand in awe;
at once with utmost speed;
with full effect indeed.
the Lord doth bring to nought,
of their device and thought:
they never slack nor swage;
take place in ev'ry age.

as God and guide is known,
to take them as his own.
on men mortal by birth,
the dwellers on the earth;
man's heart, and doth it frame,
and working of the same,
shall nought prevail at length,
shall fail for all his strength:
their sturdy steeds shall swerve;
the rider to preserve.

- 16 But lo, the eyes of God attend
With such as fear him to offend, 17 That he of death and great distress
And if that dearth their land oppresses, 18 Wherefore our soul doth whole depend
He is our shield us to defend,
19 Our joyful souls alway proclaim
For why? in his most holy Name 20 Therefore let thy goodness, O Lord,
As we always with one accord

P S A L M 34.

- I Will give laud and honour both My mouth also for evermore
2 I do delight to praise the Lord,
That humble men may hear thereof,
3 Therefore see that ye magnify
Let us exalt his holy name
4 For I myself besought the Lord,
And me deliver'd speedily
5 Whose they be that him behold,
Their countenance shall not be dash'd,
6 The poor distressed man for help
Who doth him hear without delay,
7 The Angel of the Lord doth pitch
To save all such as do him fear, 8 Taste and consider well therefore,
O happy man that makeh him
9 O fear the Lord, all ye his saints,
For they that fear the living Lord 10 The lions shall be hunger-bit,
But as for them that fear the Lord,

The Second Part.

- 11 Come near to me, my children, and I will you teach the perfect way,
- 12 Who is the man that would live long,
See thou refrain thy tongue and lips
- 13 Turn back thy face from doing ill, Enquire for peace and quietness,
- 14 For why? the eyes of God above His ears likewise to hear the cry
- 15 But he doth frown and bend his brows
And cuts away the memory
- 16 But when the just do call and cry,
That out of pain and misery
- 17 The Lord is ever nigh to them And for the contrite spirit he
- 18 Full many be the miseries
But of deliverance from them all
- 19 The Lord doth so preserve and keep That not so much as one of them
- 20 The sin shall slay the wicked man
And such as hate the righteous man
- 21 But they that fear the living Lord,
And as for those that trust in him,

P S A L M 35.

- LORD, plead my cause against my foes,
And take my part against all those 2 Lay hold upon the spear and shield, Stand up with me to fight the field, and watch to aid the just,

and on his goodness trust;
may fet their souls from dread,
in hunger them to feed,
on God our strength and stay,
and drive all darts away.
his power and his might;
we hope and much delight.
still present with us be,
do only trust in thee.

T. S.

unto the Lord always,
shall speak unto his praise.
in soul, in heart, in voice,
and heartily rejoice.
with me the living Lord;
always with one accord.
he answer'd me again,
from all my fear and pain.
shall see his light most clear:
they never need to fear.
unto the Lord doth call,
and rid him out of thral.
his tents in ev'ry place,
that nothing them deface.
that God is good and just;
his only stay and trust!
who is a mighty King;
are sure to lack nothing.
and pin'd with famine much;
no lack shall be to such.

unto my words give ear;
how ye the Lord shall fear.
and lead a happy life?
from all deceit and strife:
and do the godly deed;
and follow it with speed,
upon the just are bent,
of the poor innocent.
upon the wicked train,
that should of them remain.
the Lord doth hear them so,
forthwith he lets them go.
that broken-hearted are,
salvation doth prepare.
that righteous men endure
the Lord doth them secure:
their very bones alway,
doth perish or decay.
which he himself hath wrought:
shall soon be brought to nought:
are ever safe and found;
nothing shall them confound.

J. H.

confound their force and might,
that seek with me to fight:
thyself in armour dress'd,
and help me from distress:
