

THE LATE DR. CAREY.—The following is a copy of the will of the late Rev. Dr. Cary, taken from an East India paper. It will be seen that, except his wife's property, over which he exercised no controul, he could bequeath his children little else than his library, and the benefit of his great example.—I, William Carey, Doctor of Divinity, residing at Serampore, in the province of Bengal, being in good health, and of sound mind, do make this my last will and testament, in manner and form following:—First—I utterly disclaim all or any right or title to the premises at Serampore, called the Mission Premises, and every part and parcel thereof, and do hereby declare that I never had, or supposed myself to have, any such right or title. Secondly—I disclaim all right and title to the property belonging to my present wife, Grace Carey, amounting to 25,000 rupees, more or less, which was settled upon her by a particular deed, executed previously to my marriage with her. Thirdly—I give and bequeath to the College of Serampore the whole of my museum, consisting of minerals, shells, corals, insects, and other natural curiosities, and a Hortus Siccus. Also the folio edition of Hortus Wobernensis, which was presented to me by Lord Hastings; Taylor's Hebrew Concordance, my collection of Bibles in foreign languages, and all my books in the Italian and German languages. Fourthly—I desire that my wife, Grace Carey, will select from my library whatever books in the English language she wishes for, and keep them for her own use. Fifthly—From the failure of funds to carry my former intentions into effect, I direct that my library, with the exceptions above made, be sold by public auction, unless it, or any part of it, can be advantageously disposed of by private sale, and that from the proceeds 1,500 rupees be paid as a legacy to my son, Jabez Carey, a like sum having heretofore been paid to my sons Felix and William. Sixthly—It was my intention to have bequeathed a similar sum to my son Jonathan Carey, but God has so prospered him that he is in no immediate want of it. I direct that if any thing remains it be given to my wife Grace Carey, to whom I also bequeath all my household furniture, wearing apparel, and whatever other effects I may possess, for her proper use and behoof. Seventhly—I direct that before every other thing, all my lawful debts may be paid, that my funeral be as plain as possible; that I be buried by the side of my second wife Charlotte Emilia Carey; and that the following inscription, and nothing more, may be cut on the stone which commemorates her, either above or below, as there may be room; viz.—

“ William Carey, born August 17, 1761, died—
 “ A wretched, poor, and helpless worm,
 On thy kind arms I fall.”

Eighthly—I hereby constitute and appoint my dear friends the Rev. Wm. Robinson, of Calcutta, and the Rev. John Mack, of Serampore, executors to this my last will and testament, and request them to perform all therein desired and ordered by me, to the utmost of their power. Ninthly—I hereby declare this to be my last will and testament, and revoke all other wills and testaments of a date prior to this. (Sd.) WM. CAREY.”
