

William Carey College Jubilee Lecturer
Dr. Lalchungnunga

Dr. Lalchungnunga (Dr. Lal for short), is Principal of Serampore College, Serampore, India, He is a native of Mizoram (Land of the Mizo) a predominantly Christian state in northeast India. An ordained minister in the Mizoram Presbyterian Church, Lalchungnunga holds the following degrees: B.A., M.A., Gauhati University; M.Phil., Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi; Ph.D., North Eastern Hill University; and B.D., Serampore College. Apart from the Serampore divinity degree, Dr. Lal's degrees are in the field of political science. He has published one book, Mizoram: Politics of Regionalism and National Integration (1994), and has written a few papers for seminars.

Prior to becoming the Principal of Serampore College in 1999, he was a missionary in Delhi, 1991-1998. He is a member of the National Executive Board, All India Association of Christian Higher Education, and a member of the Evangelical Teachers Fellowship of India. He is married to Lalhliri, and they have three children, Emmanuel, Elizabeth, and Michael. Of importance to Dr. Lal is the fact that his name, Lalchungnunga, means "God is Lord above all kings."

Dr. Lalchungnunga's visit and lecture is the first such appearance by any Serampore College Principal to William Carey College, a fitting highlight for William Carey College's Jubilee Celebration.
